So many years and memories; people frequently thought that Mary was older than me. She was the mother hen long before she was a mother. Thank you for being there to help me through out our lives together.

Mary believed in me and supported me. She was by far, the best boss I have ever had. She was a friend and a mentor who I grew to love and will miss always. I admired her grit and her ability to yield but not break in the face of adversity . I am happy she is now with her mother who she has missed.

Mary~I miss you so much. You brought the fun to whatever was happening. Remember me telling you and Norm about my potato sack catching on fire in the microwave ðŸ˜¸, and then the same thing happened to you ðŸ˜¸. Seriously though you were such a great cook, you threw the best BBQ'S, made some of the best food ever! I promise we'll keep an eye on Norm for you, and I'll miss you every day♥️,
