Wiliam Graham Macbeth

JUN 15, 1919 - DEC 5, 2018

William Graham Macbeth son of William and Katherine Macbeth.

Born Jun 15, 1919 in Yakima Washington died of heart failure Tuesday, December 4 in Oregon City, Oregon. He will be placed at Riverview Cemetery next to wife Phyllis.

Bill grew up in Yakima Washington where he attended grammar and high school. He moved to Portland and attended Reed College from where he graduated. Joined the U.S. Army and was admitted to Officer Training at the close of WWII. A Portland resident, he married Phyllis Broms of Multnomah, OR in 1950; and enjoyed a long career with Portland Power and Light residing at his home in West Linn with wife Phyllis. They spent many years Salmon fishing and touring the Northwest coastal waters in their seafaring vessels and trips to Mexico culminating a lifetime of fond memories.

He is survived by two nieces and four nephews in Oregon and Colorado.
