Alice E Austin Dorney Cook

March 1929-September 2017

Alice Cook passed away peacefully at home on Saturday, September 2nd.

Alice was a third generation Oswego pioneer family member and will be laid to rest at the Lake Oswego Pioneer Cemetery along side of her parents and two brothers. Her sister also preceded her in death and is buried in Portland.

She married long time Oswego resident Robert Dorney and together they had five children.

Later in life, Alice married William B Cook Jr, another Oswego pioneer family member. They spent their married life in Lake Oswego and Tigard Oregon.

Alice is survived by her five children: Karen Cook (Steve Cook), Kristeen Rowley (Alan Rowley), Kathie Dorney (William Ortega), Kim Dorney, Kevin Dorney (Linda Dorney), as well as her step-sons David Cook (Nancy Cook), Gary Cook (Sue Cook), seventeen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren

Alice was preceded in death by her loving husband Bill Cook.

Alice is best remembered for her love of gardening, sewing skills, and puzzles of all kinds.

She will be missed.
