To the family and friends of George Livingston, I would like to express my deepest and heartfelt condolences. I am truly sorry for the lost that your family is feeling. When ever we lose such a caring and loving person, it is the hardest experience that any of us can go thru. And because of that my thoughts and prayers are with your family. During this extremely difficult time, please turn to God for comfort and support. He promise to give your family the strength needed in order to endure this great lost. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) Something else that will reunite us back with your family is cherishing all the wonderful memories that you have of Mr. George. These precious memories will console the family in the day's ahead.

George was an honorable man. He was a faithful friend and an angel to my folks. He blessed our family in times of joy and in times of sorrow. We shared many cups of coffee to the tune of bad jokes. Howells will never be the same. My condolences to his family. May God bless you in this time of sorrow, and for all the days of your lives.
