I remember our camping/fishing trips. I always felt like we were related even though Ruthena's brother Jim was married to my aunt Cyrilla and that's as close as I came to being part of the family!

Ruthena was my aunt, she will be missed. I remember hearing her play the guitar when I was young, she enjoyed her music. She would tell me when living in LaPine how she would go out and chop her wood for the winter. Ruthena was always busy doing things she loved. Thoughts and prayers are being sent to her daughter, son-in-law and all the grand children. R.I.P. Ruthena

Ruthena was my grandmother. She taught me how to crochet, play the guitar and enjoy the outdoors. I will miss her more than words can say.
