Lisa Marie Stafford

JAN 20, 1962 - JUN 3, 2012

Lisa Marie Stafford was born in North Bend, OR, the daughter to Sandra and Brian Weigart of La Pine, OR. She passed away from an aggressive form of cancer at Willamette Falls Hospital, where she was surrounded by her beloved family. Lisa lived in Lake Oswego with her husband, David Stafford, whom she married in 2002. Those close to Lisa knew her for her warmth and kindness, her gentle spirit, her loyal friendship and her laughter. In addition to her parents and her husband, Lisa is survived by her daughter Nicole Van Cleave, son Erik Van Cleave, both of Aloha, Ore., her stepdaughter Karen Stafford and stepson Bobby Stafford, both from the Seattle area. She also leaves behind her sister, Cheryl Padilla, and her brother, Darren Weigart, along with three nieces and many cousins and extended family and friends. Her kind, compassionate and warmhearted nature will be greatly missed. A private celebration of her life will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions can be made to the American Cancer Society.
