Alexander Estoup

OCT 2, 1990 - DEC 1, 2025

Alexander Michael Estoup, our bright, brilliant, burst of light passed into his loving Lord's arms December 1, 2025 at OHSU in Portland Oregon. He was 35. Alex was born to Michael Warren and Janet Kay (Wiedrich) Estoup in Portland, Oregon on October 2, 1990 and was raised in Beaverton, Oregon where he resided when he passed. As a child, he loved playing with his big sister, Ashley and little brother, Aaron. Digging in the dirt, riding anything with wheels, playing with his Tonka trucks and enjoying any adventure the three of them dreamt up. A student of the Beaverton School district, Alex graduated from Southridge High School in 2009. Alex was fearless. He bungee jumped at the age of 10. Loved roller coasters...the bigger and crazier the better!! He was a risk taker, living life to the fullest. While in school, Alex played soccer and began wrestling. He loved both those sports and was a fierce competitor. Some of the friendships he found in High School are still shining bright today. Those friendships are fierce, loyal and loving. Alex was always up for an adventure. Either with his siblings, or with his friends...it didn't matter he was ready. His laughter was infectious. A deep throated robust laugh that rang through everything. His smile lit up a room. He has been described by the ones who loved him as: loyal, funny, quirky, joyful, devoted, determined, sometimes impulsive, but always always a great friend and brother, a great man.

Beginning a job at Les Schwab after high school graduation in the fall of 2009, Alex began a journey of personal growth. He worked hard, took pride in being a valued employee and also expanded his circle of friends. He blossomed. In 2018, Alex decided to change his career path and began working at Trimet in Portland. Alex purchased a home and recently a beautiful brand new car. He was so proud of those accomplishments. Again...at Trimet Alex expanded his friendship circle once again. Never ever leaving anyone behind...just expanding his tribe.

Alex loved his family and friends and spending time with them. His most cherished times were those spent camping with his buddies at the beach, hiking anywhere, rafting, playing Xbox, watching football and Oregon State baseball. Being outside brought him such joy. Alex's favorite holiday wasn't Christmas...it was the Fourth of July!!! He looked forward to it every year for weeks! Prepared for it, planned for it, bugging his Dad to schedule a time when they would visit the Indian Reservation to go shopping. He was like the fireworks on the Fourth...a bright, brilliant, shining light in our lives. Being with friends and family, enjoying everything he loved was the icing on the cake.

In the past year, Alex dove deeper in the faith and love of God that had been instilled in him as a child. He spent time in prayer with friends and spent time reading the word of God.

Alex is remembered and cherished by his parents, Michael and Janet Estoup. They will love and miss him forever. He is also survived by his sister Ashley Christine Estoup and fiancé Remington Teekell, his brother Aaron Richard Estoup and wife Carling Leon Estoup and their daughter Zara Carling. Also carrying his memory with love are his Grandmother Barbara Estoup and multiple aunts, uncles and a large extended family that includes all of his dear friends. Alex's light and joy will remain in all of our hearts forever.

He was welcomed into eternal life by his Grandparents Benjamin and Irene Wiedrich and Grandfather Robert Estoup.

The celebration of life for Alex will be held Saturday, December 13, 2025 at 3 pm at Zion Lutheran Church 720 Jefferson St, Oregon City, Oregon. A light luncheon will be served after and all are encouraged to stay. Inurnment will take place Monday, December 15, 2025 at 11 am at Mountain View Cemetery 500 Hilda St, Oregon City. All are invited and welcome. His Service will be live streamed for people who are unable to celebrate in person. Visit the link to Zion Lutheran's website to access the live stream from Zion's home page. <https://www.zionlutheranelca.org>. It will begin streaming at 2:50 pm PST.

The family asks that all donations be given in Alex's name to Doernbecher Children's Hospital at OHSU in Portland, Oregon. Whether offering a one-time donation, or an ongoing one will keep Alex's legacy and generous spirit alive and bright.

The Light Remains

There are some who bring a light so great to the world, that even after they have left us,

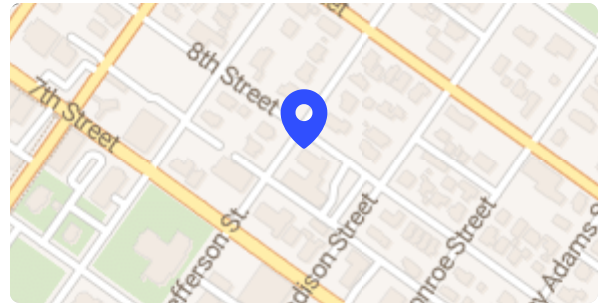

The light remains.

We will miss him every day, but we will continue love him as fiercely as he loved all of us.

Watching Alex grow from a 7 year old in first grade to adult, has been one our greatest joys. He was indeed fearless. In scouts, he was extremely inquisitive and ready to try anything. Watching him at his wrestling matches was good fun. Every June, Alex would call and ask if we wanted to go with him to the Indian Reservation to buy Fireworks. He would smile, laugh and jump so hard every July 4th. Watching his reactions to the fireworks, was sometimes better than watching the Fireworks themselves. Every time we would go to the movies, he was shocked by me going there a hour before to stand in line in order get good seats. I loved it when I told Alex that I would take him to a Seattle Mariners game against the Boston Red Sox, but Alex would have to wear a Red Sox shirt. He took it in stride, and we had a good time. This video of him Bungee Jumping for his first time, is a testament to his fearlessness. The world is a bit darker without Alex, but we will always cherish the memories of our time together.

Alex and Papa Wall would go hunting together just the two of them. He was like our own son. He would help us out with whatever we needed. He would come over to show us his new toys. I wish he would've known whatever he faced we would've been there. Our hearts break. We didn't really know his folks but they were always good to our boy. We are shocked by our loss. These kids were like glue. We are devastated by this loss. Our love to everyone he will forever be in our hearts. All our thoughts and prayers to everyone who knew this beautiful soul.

Alex was a one-of-a-kind person, and the world feels emptier without him here. Alex and I weren't super close, but our best friends married each other, which meant we ended up in the same places often. We both had the great honor of being part of Emily & John's wedding party and I had the privilege of walking with Alex down the aisle that day. I was used to the goofy, jokester version of Alex I usually saw in the friend group - you know, the guys being guys. But one on one with Alex, you could see his true self. He was so sweet and kind and truly cared about everyone. He took walking down the aisle for the wedding so serious. I thought it was so cute & funny, but you could tell he wanted to do right by his best friend on his wedding day. And he even saved me from sinking into the wet grass :) I don't have a lot of vivid or standout moments with Alex, but I don't think I need to. For me, I saw the small moments - the kind we sometimes take for granted. I'd post something on instagram and he would comment something nice or ask how I was doing, and he genuinely meant it. I saw how deeply he loved and cared for his friends. From the outside looking in, that friend group has such a strong bond, and it wont be the same without him. I'm so honored to have known and spent time with Alex. I'm sorry I'm not able to attend in person, but I'm sending my love & deepest condolences to all his family and his friends. This is a heart-crushing loss but I'm certain he is finally free & at peace. ☐ Psalm 34:18
