A Goodbye from Judy...

To All I Love –

What a good life I have had. Not rich with money or “things”. Truly rich with family, friends, health and happiness. A good family, four people I am proud to say are “my kids” and who gave me seven wonderful, loving, grandkids, very special friends who enriched our lives, and years of married love with a dear and devoted man.

Hard work, appreciation for what we had and a love of life, family and friends made our senior years and retirement a joy to get up together and look at the flowers and the sunshine.

Thank you to all, past and present!

Judy made me feel so welcome when I was first introduced at the Sandpit, telling me how everyone was connected and history of the family (so many people!) She was so down to earth and friendly, always upbeat, never an unkind word. She had her priorities straight, put her family first, lived a good life and made the grass greener right where she was. I'm happy to have been able to spend the time with her that I did, good memories ♥

Don't have a specific memory that stands out, just the way I never felt judged and always welcome. The house was never locked I don't even think a key existed to that house in Willamette. She tolerated me when she didn't have to, always a smile. I feel blessed to have known her.
