

Angela Lynn Zimmerman

December 1, 1989 - August 22, 2018

Angela Lynn Zimmerman

12/1/89 - 8/22/18

Angie had the most tender heart. This heart gave her the ability to draw in a community of friends and family who loved her dearly. The twinkle in her eyes, big smile, and contagious laugh will never be forgotten.

Angie is survived by her son, Connor Cain; mother, Kimberly Zimmerman; father, Tom Zimmerman; sister, Holly Zimmerman; brother, Justin Orcutt; niece, McKennah Orcutt; many family and friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Sunday, September 9, 2018, from 1-3 pm at Hopkins Demonstration Forest, in Everett Hall. 16750 S Brockway Rd. Oregon City, Oregon 97045.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the words of our loving heavenly Father bring your family comfort and strength during this most difficult time as He promises to bring our loved ones back to life in a perfect world where there will be no more suffering or death (John 5:28-29 & Revelation 21:4).

“ My deepest sympathies to Angie's family and friends. My daughter Jessica and Angie were best buddies for 10 months and she made me smile knowing that they had such a fast and intense bond these last months. I am grateful for her love and keeping Jessica strong through her own life struggles. I pray that you are comforted that Angie was a good person and a loving friend and mother. I will always remember her as a friend to many and a strong woman dealing with some really bad demons. It breaks my heart that I never got the chance to meet her and tell her in person how loved she was by our family. Much love, XOXO

“ Angela will be remembered for her smile. For the love she held for her father. For the caring heart she displayed for her son and all her friends & family. She will be missed dearly. These remembrances and others allow Angie to live forever in the heart and soul of all those whose life she touched. Rest in peace, Angie. You are loved.

“ My first day meeting and working with Angie at DKB, was only less than two months ago. I'll never forget that day. Sometime during the shift, she walked up to me, held out her hand and asked, 'What's the only tree you can put in your hand?' I had no answer. She giggled and said, 'A PALM tree!! Haha!! We both cracked up! Immediately I knew, I liked this one. We didn't end up working together much, as she had taken some time off, but the very next time she saw me (must've been our second working shift together), she greeted me with a hug. Here I was, brand new... didn't know me from Adam, and she was giving me hugs. Though in my life a tiny fraction of time, I will never forget her. I adored her crooked smile, and the way she lit everyone up. She was a gem in the truest sense of the word. Thank you Angie for extending the simplest of kindness. You are missed.
